HALF A DAY SUMMER TRAINING SESSION :

You will discover the richness of our flavors, tastes and typical aromas during half a day of summer course in Université du Vin (Suze la Rousse, France). During tasting courses, you will improve your knowledge concerning our « produits du terroir » (local products) according to methodology of tasting.

- You will appreciate some secrets of Mediterranean diet, learn about the recognizable signs of quality (French and European)
- You will find out how our sense of taste works, learn how to listen to all your senses in order to taste truly through tasting tests.
- You will taste our local olives, olive oil, sweet or salted “croquant” (crispy local biscuits), goat cheese, wines and so on (depending on the period of production)
